

Jerry is a native Floridian originally from Miami where he lived for 35 years and then inched his way closer to Ocala by living in Ft Lauderdale for 9 years and then eventually settling in Ocala where he calls home.

Jerry has been married to his wife Barbara for 30 years whom, he met while studying for his Marketing degree at FIU in Miami. Barbara and Jerry have a daughter 29 and two boys ages 24 and 15.

A passion for real estate and construction was cultivated starting in the early eighties while working at his father's development company in Miami.

Today Jerry is a Certified General Contractor and is President of Thoroughbred Builders Inc., a construction firm specializing in building residential homes throughout Marion County. He has a unique perspective on the pulse of the housing market since he also is a Florida licensed Realtor and has obtained the prestigious designation of Graduate in Real Estate Institute of which only 10% of Realtors accomplish.

Jerry believes in giving back to his community and has served on several boards of non profit organizations and has volunteered his time to The Boy Scouts of America, Trinity Catholic High School, Brothers Keeper and is a past President of the Marion County Building Industry Association and a current board member in good standing.